Opening Hymn: WE GATHER TOGETHER

We gather together to sing the Lord's praises, to worship the Father through Jesus, His Son. In this celebration, all sing with jubilation! We are His holy people whose freedom He won.

We greet our Lord present within our assembly; we hear His good news announced clearly to all. With songs of rejoicing our praises we are voicing, as we invoke God's blessing and answer His call.

Post Communion Hymn: O LIVING BREAD FROM HEAVEN

(sung to the melody of O Lord, I Am Not Worthy)

O Living Bread from heaven, O Saving Cup divine,
Your death and resurrection Make known in holy signs.

When Christ saw those who hungered, He called for loaves of bread; By taking, blessing, breaking, The multitude was fed.

We long to hear You tell us, "I am the living bread." Our lives in You are strengthened And all our hungers fed.

Now help us to remember Your words, "I am the vine,"
To lives of service lead us, Poured out as living wine.

Then let our feast continue Through works of charity,
That, as we feed the hungry, Your reign on earth we see.

O Prince of heaven, Michael Archangel Be our

God's tribunal. Remain our patron saint, Michael Archangel

SAINT MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL, PRAY FOR US.

September 29th - Michael the Archangel

He is one of the three archangels, with Gabriel and Raphael, liturgically venerated by the Church. He appears twice in the Old Testament (Dan. 10:13ff;12:1, as the helper of the chosen people) and twice in the New Testament (Jude v.9, where he disputes with the devil over Moses' body; and Rev. 12:7-9, where he and his angels fought the dragon and hurled him and his followers from heaven). He repeatedly appears in apocryphal literature and was early regarded in the Church as the captain of the heavenly host, the protector of the Christian against the devil, especially at the hour of death, when he conducts the soul to God, and as the helper of Christian armies against heathen armies. His cult apparently originated in Phrygia but soon spread to the West, where it received great impetus as a result of the legend that he appeared at Mount Garganus in northern Italy during the pontificate of Bishop Gelasius of Rome (492-96) and indicated a spot at which a shrine in his honor was to be erected. Usually he is represented with a sword fighting with or standing over a conquered dragon. His feast day on September 29 (Michaelmas Day), has been celebrated since the sixth century to honor the dedication of a basilica in his honor on the Salerian Way in Rome.
